Interdisciplinary International Conference on

The Reflection of Work-Culture of the Gypsy and Liberated Tribes in Art and Literature

1st & 2nd April, 2019

Brief Report

India is a country having unity in diversity. The Indian people belong to different religions, castes and communities. The basic division of the Indian people can be traced on account of their settlement. The people belonging to the Nomadic Tribes are landless and hence wander for livelihood throughout the country just like Gypsies in the foreign countries. These people perform their traditional arts and exhibit their culture so as to earn their livelihood. The life of these deprived classes and people was at the center of the conference theme.

On the occasion of Centenary Year of Rayat Shikshan Sanstha and the Golden Jubilee Year of D. P. Bhosale College, Koregaon, the Department of English in collaboration with Department of Marathi and Hindi organized Interdisciplinary International Conference on The Reflection of Work-Culture of the Gypsy and Liberated Tribes in Art and Literature. The prime objective of the conference was to invite Research Papers to be presented in the conferences so that the themes chosen for the conference would be explored by the budding research scholars, students and academicians in the respective discipline. Accordingly, the researchers explored historical, geographical, economical, political, religious, educational, social, and cultural aspects of these people. The next objective was to invite the International figures and internationally reputed Resource Persons in this conference to guide and motivate the emerging research scholars. Both the objectives have been attained.

Total number of Research Papers Received	: 48
Total Number of Participants	: 56
Number of Resource Persons from Abroad	: 07
Number of Resource Persons from India	: 08
