National Web-Seminar On
“CORONA PANDEMIC: LESSONS FOR INDIAN ECONOMY”

21st July, 2020

Brief Report

National Web-Seminar On Corona Pandemic: Lessons for Indian Economy was organized by the IQAC and department of Economics on 21st July, 2020 at Rayat Shikshan Sanstha's D. P. Bhosale College, Koregaon.

Inauguration Function of the National Web-seminar was held at 12.35 PM, Prin. Dr .V. S. Sawant was the president of the inaugural function. Dr. B. S. Lokade (Chairman, IQAC Committee, D.P. Bhosale, Koregaon) introduced the seminar and delivered the welcome Speech.

Almost one and half years after the World Health Organization declared COVID-19 a pandemic, the world is coming to terms with the disruptions caused by the virus. The most profound and consequential impact has been the pandemic's toll on healthcare systems. And then there has been the more persistent and reverberating economic toll. As India combats the first wave of Covid-19, the impact on economic activity remains a major concern.

On the occasion of Centenary Year of Rayat Shikshan Sanstha and the Golden Jubilee Year of D. P. Bhosale College, Koregaon, the Department Economics of in collaboration with IQAC organized national Conference on “CORONA PANDEMIC: LESSONS FOR INDIAN ECONOMY”

Number of resource persons: 02

Total number of participants: 518

Economic Consequences of Covid-19 Lockdown: Lessons from India's First Wave was the main objective of the conference. The next objective was to expose the uncertain state of India's informal sector to the epidemic. The next purpose was to invite national figures and nationally renowned resource persons to the conference to guide and inspire emerging research practitioners. The above objectives have been achieved.
