Workshop on Enhancing Creative & Critical Abilities

Lead College Activity in collaboration with ELT@I –Satara-Chapter

Wednesday, 13th April, 2022

Brief Report

The Department of English organized one day workshop on Enhancing Creative and Critical Abilities in collaboration with English Language Teachers' Association of India (ELT@I) Satara Chapter under the Lead College Scheme of Shivaji University, Kolhapur on Wednesday, 13th April, 2022. The workshop was organized with prime objective of enhancing creative as well as critical abilities of the students and faculty of the department. It was also intended that the students would get more insights into the creative writing such as poetry, short stories, one act plays and develop critical abilities of analyzing the prescribed texts through the scholarly talks of the invited speakers. The event began with the publication of the Wallpaper – LANGLIT at 10:15 by the auspicious hands of Mr. Vijay Ghadage and in presence of Dr. Sachin Mane, Dr. B. S. Chavan, Dr. N. D. Nikam, Dr. M. B. Hande, faculty and students of the department. The Issue of the wallpaper was prepared on Modern English Poets in which the students collected data on the Modern English poets such as T.E Eliot, W. B. Yeats, Nissim Ezekiel, Kamala Das, Pablo Neruda and others.

The workshop was inaugurated at 10:25 a.m with the talk of the Chief Guest Mr. Vijay Ghadage, Member, ELT@I, Satara Chapter and Head, Department of English, S. J. Arts & Commerce College, Wagholi. Mr. S. U. Kasgawade introduced the event as well as the guests of honour. The Inaugural Session was chaired by Dr. B. S. Lokde.

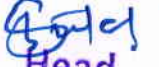

During the first session of this workshop Mr. Vijay Ghadage delivered his speech on the topic T. S. Eliot's Tradition and Individual Talent. He focused on how to enhance creative abilities with reference to the essay prescribed at B.A. III special English. This session was chaired by Mr. P. S. Kamble who further elaborated the topic through his remarks. Mrs. S. P. Mane was the in-charge of this session.

The second session of this workshop was started at 11:10 am. Dr. Sachin Mane Assistant Professor, Department of English, Chh. Shivaji College, Satara was the resource person of this session. He guided the participants on the topic Satire as a literary Device with special reference to the novel Animal Farm by George Orwell. Mr. S. U. Kasgawade chaired the session and passed his remarks in connection with the talk delivered by the resource person. Mr. R. T. Wadate was the in-charge of this session.

During the valedictory function of the workshop the chief guest Dr. Sachin Mane appreciated the initiatives of the department in terms of inculcating creative and critical abilities among the students and motivated the participants for creative writing. As a chairperson of the session, Dr. B. S. Lokde took a brief review of the earlier deliberations of the workshop and asked the students to participate in the student centric activities of the department.

Total 15 faculty members and 84 students actively participated in the workshop and gave their valuable feedback at the end.
