REPORT ON KRISHI VIGYAN KENDRA, BARAMATI

Krishi Vigyan Kendra (Farmer Science Center) Baramati was established on 1st August 1992 under the affiliation ICAR. From 1992 to 2008, the operational area of KVK was whole Pune district, but after the establishment of new KVK in the Pune district the operational area is reduced to the 7 Tehsils of pune district. Krishi Vigyan Kendra Baramati is model, Hi-tech & National award winning KVK of India working for farmer community since 24 years for the development of sustainable agriculture. The aim of Krishi Vigyan Kendra is to reduce the time lag between the technology transfer from research institution to the farmers field for increasing production, productivity and income from the agriculture and allied sectors on a sustained basis.

THE VISION OF KVK

To be the leading resource and knowledge center of Agriculture technology for the upliftment of the farming community.

THE MISSION IS "KRISHIK"

To deliver demand driven agriculture products and services by qualified professionals.

Krishi Vigyan Kendra possesses 110 acres of land that is fully under cultivation of crops relavet to the area. The main purpose of the farm is to demonstrate the latest agriculture practices. It also acts as a tool to do applied research on agriculture technologies and undertake trials before their transfer to farmers. Farm have the mother plants of horticulture crops such as Mango, Sapota, Guava, Anola, Custord apple, Pomegranate etc. Agronomical crops like soyabean, onion, cotton, rice, sugarcane and wheat etc. are grown. Automation and fertigation unit through whuich water and fertilililer are provided to all crops on farm.
